ACTION

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM:

SAMUEL BERGER SB

SUBJECT:

Northern Ireland-United States Chamber of Commerce (NI-US)

Purpose

Reply to Tony Culley-Foster, President of the Northern Ireland-United States Chamber of Commerce.

Background

The NI-US Chamber is located in Washington. Culley-Foster is from Northern Ireland and is also the underwriter of David Trimble's UUP Washington Office. Culley-Foster recalls your visit to Northern Ireland in 1995, comments that he attended the last three St. Patrick's Day receptions at the White House and notes UUP's efforts in the United States to build relations. He recounts a business success that he attributes to White House and Commerce Department involvement with Northern Ireland's brand bottled water, St. Patrick's Water.

You thank Culley-Foster for his process and for the information

Dear Mr. Culley-Foster:

Thank you for your letter of support on Northern Ireland peace. I appreciate your own contribution to this important goal with the Ulster Unionist Party.

It was good to see you with the Northern Ireland party leaders at the White House on March 17. I believe the parties can achieve a fair and lasting agreement in the next few weeks, and hope that you and others will offer strong encouragement to get the job done.

Thank you for the interesting story on St. Patrick's Water. I hope it was a success.

Sincerely,
