Hon. William J. Clinton
President
United States
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Ave.
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. President:

We the the undersigned New York City Councilmembers are writing to express our sincere hope that you appoint a Special Peace Envoy to Northern Ireland. As you may know, the New York City Council has consistently advocated for a peaceful and just solution to the violence in Northern Ireland and manifested this support by approving the MacBride Principles for New York City.

While we in no way condone the violence perpetrated by terrorist groups in the region, we also know that such groups exist because of the brutal and unjust nature of the British occupation.

Just as the United States has a vital role in settling bitter disputes in the Middle East, it also has a responsibility, as a world leader, to mediate the conflict in Northern Ireland.

We believe that appointing a Special Peace Envoy to Northern Ireland would send a clear and powerful signal to all interested parties in the region that the United States wants to end the terrible bloodshed there and is serious about doing so.

We thank you for taking the time to consider our opinion and wish you every success.

Very truly yours,
