Dear Mr. President,

I am writing to you to ask for your support in trying to create Peace in Northern Ireland.

Employee Rel. Director
J. Kevin Sellards

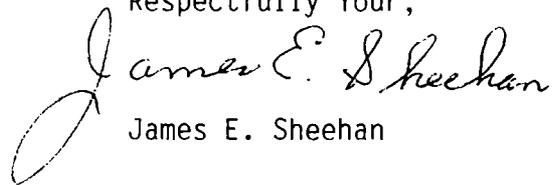

I fully realize that this is a very difficult task to accomplish. The people of Northern Ireland deserve peace on the same level as all the other countries that the United States supports in this effort, particularly Somalia, Israel and Bosnia. Only the efforts of the United States Government along with the rest of the world can peace be brought to Northern Ireland.

Clerk to the Board
Shelley White

During your campaign for the Presidency in 1992 you stated that you were for peace throughout the world. I know, as an elected official myself, that sometimes campaign promises are difficult to keep and must be prioritized, but certainly no promise is more important than to bring peace to the world.

Thanking you in advance for your support, I remain

Respectfully Your,

James E. Sheehan
