The Honorable William Jefferson Clinton
President of the United States of America
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. President:

My personal congratulations to you on your re-election to office last month. I know you look forward to the challenges ahead in the next four years with excitement. From a personal standpoint I am pleased to have the opportunity to continue working with you to secure peace and justice in Northern Ireland.

I expect there will be many legislative and policy matters involving Northern Ireland on your agenda in the upcoming year. Please know, as Chairman of the Friends of Ireland Caucus in the House, I stand ready to be of assistance to you. I am strongly committed to working towards peace, justice and economic prosperity in this troubled country and look forward to working with you over the months ahead.

My wife, DeDe, and I extend our best wishes to you and your family for a happy holiday season.

Sincerely,

James T. Walsh
Member of Congress

THE WHITE HOUSE

'97 JAN 22 P8:43

WASHINGTON

January 9, 1997

Dear Representative Walsh:

Thank you for your letter of congratulations on my reelection and your expressions of support for our efforts in Northern Ireland in the coming year.

I remain convinced that the talks on the future of Northern Ireland chaired by Senator Mitchell offer an historic opportunity to achieve a just and lasting settlement in Northern Ireland. I can assure you that my Administration will continue to work closely with the Irish and British Governments and the Northern Ireland political parties to support the peace process.

I look forward to working with you and with other members of the Friends of Ireland Caucus on this issue of such concern to all of us.

Sincerely,

The Honorable James T. Walsh
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515
