Dear Representative Walsh:

Thank you for your letter of congratulations on my reelection and your expressions of support for our efforts in Northern Ireland in the coming year.

I remain convinced that the talks on the future of Northern Ireland chaired by Senator Mitchell offer an historic opportunity to achieve a just and lasting settlement in Northern Ireland. I can assure you that my Administration will continue to work closely with the Irish and British Governments and the Northern Ireland political parties to support the peace process.

I look forward to working with you and with other members of the Friends of Ireland Caucus on this issue of such concern to all of us.

Sincerely,

Bill Clinton ^A
