Re: Good Friday Agreement

Dear Mr. President:

This will strongly urge you to continue to support the peace process in Northern Ireland and to insure that Unionist forces do not prevent the implementation of the above agreement, an agreement that George Mitchell, Jerry Adams and others labored so long to achieve.

The centuries of systematic repression of the Irish people can only begin to be alleviated through the commitments of political leaders to their promises. It is respectfully submitted that acts of bad faith on the Unionist side should not be tolerated by our government.

Many thanks for your kind attention to this matter of great importance to so many Americans.

Sincerely,

Kenneth R. Callahan
Judge
