THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

May 12, 1998

Dear Millard:

I was delighted to learn that Habitat for Humanity International will be sponsoring a bi-communal building project this month in Belfast near the Peaceline.

This comes at a crucial time since, as you know, the people of Northern Ireland will vote just days afterward on the April 10 peace accord, the best chance in a generation to secure a lasting peace. Projects such as yours which encourage community cooperation are needed to help all the people of Northern Ireland secure a common future of peace for themselves and their children.

Although I will not be traveling to Northern Ireland, I know this will be a most successful and worthwhile endeavor.

Sincerely,

Mr. Millard Fuller
