THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

March 9, 1995

Dear Representative ^{Peter} King:

Thank you for your letter of February 14. I appreciate your encouragement for this Administration's support to the peace process underway in Northern Ireland. With your help, we can make a meaningful contribution to that process.

At the same time, as I am sure you agree, our support for the process should not compromise enforcement of our own laws. In that regard, I urge you to raise directly with Attorney General Reno any concerns you have about enforcement policies of the Department of Justice.

Sincerely,

Rosen
