Dear Kathy:

Thanks so much for your letter of December 5. It was wonderful to hear from you, and I really appreciate your offer to help with our efforts to secure a lasting peace in Northern Ireland.

I hope you're well and that you have a wonderful holiday season.

Sincerely,

Brian Clinton

December 5, 1995

Dear Bill and Hillary:

What a joy to see your glorious reception in Northern Ireland!

The year before I left Little Rock I lived with a guy from Ireland (who's now mayor of Waldron...) and became deeply interested in Irish culture, history and "The Troubles." I visited Northern Ireland in 1990 and came away with such a profound sadness: the roadblocks, the checkpoints, the British troops tramping through fields, hovering in choppers over the campground, aiming rifles in our faces. It was hard to believe I was in the western-most European country! Such a beautiful country and such wonderful, wonderful people -- so forlorn and forgotten by the rest of the world.

Over the years I've continued my interest and have come to know many Irish here in America. I must admit I never thought I would see an end to the conflict. It goes so far beyond religion, which I wish the press would point out more often, if ever.

Thank you for visiting that little piece of the world. And thank you for helping to bring peace.

If I may ever be of service in the cause of Ireland/Northern Ireland, please call on me. It's a cause dear to my heart.

Sincerely, Your Friend,

Kathy Ford

p.s. You're Judy Collins fans -- dig out your old album and listen to "Patriot's Game." Pretty well sums up the past...thank God there's a new future.

Happy Holidays! The tree looks beautiful!
