Dear Bob:

I had lunch yesterday with Allen Questrom, Chairman of Federated Stores. He expressed an earnest desire to meet with you and discuss the concerns you have articulated so strongly and well in the last several months regarding sweat shops. I believe you have had a couple of appointments with Allen that had to be cancelled, and I simply wanted to convey his desire to meet with you and my encouragement that you do so.

Allen is a thoughtful person, and I think he will give you a good perspective on this critical issue from a retailer's standpoint.

Thanks.

Personally,

Mack McLarty

Great job of you and Arthur re: minimum wage in today's NLT. Congratulations. Your leadership was truly outstanding on this important issue.
