Dear Joseph:

Thanks for your thoughtful letter. I appreciate your affirmation of our efforts to bring a just and lasting peace in Northern Ireland. We haven't made any decisions yet on a trip there, but I forwarded your request to Sandy Berger for his review.

All the best to you.

Sincerely,

Former Governor J. Joseph Garrahy - Thanks to your early and determined effort, we finally have the framework for peace in Ireland. America has once again shown its greatness and world leadership. His parents, with their young family, came to America from Ireland, and he recalls stories of the "troubles" endured. He would be pleased and honored to be part of the American Delegation when you visit Ireland.

The Honorable William Jefferson Clinton
President of the United States
The White House
Washington, DC 20500-2000

Dear President Clinton,

Thanks to your early and determined effort, we finally have the framework for peace in Ireland. No other President, or world leader, has displayed the kind of leadership or courage to bring this long and bitter dispute in Northern Ireland to this historic new beginning for its people.

America has once again shown its greatness and world leadership - just as in Bosnia and with your continuing efforts in the Middle East.

My parents, with their young family, came to America from Ireland. I grew up with the constant stories of the "troubles" and how my own father's youth was consumed with divisiveness and bloodshed involved in that conflict.

Mr. President, it is noted that you plan to visit Ireland in May to recognize this historic agreement; I would be pleased and honored to be included as part of the American Delegation.

Sincerely,

J. Joseph Garrahy
Former Governor
