THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

August 7, 1996

Ms. Nicole Miller
President and Designer
Nicole Miller, Incorporated
525 Seventh Avenue
New York, New York 10018

Dear Nicole:

Thank you for participating in the White House meeting of the Apparel Industry Partnership. Your dedication and leadership have helped establish a strong foundation for what I know will be a successful effort to develop industry options for assuring consumers that the products they buy are not made under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

There is much work to be done over the next several months. Secretary of Labor Reich and I are committed to helping you in any way we can. To give the process a jump start, Secretary Reich will host the initial meeting of principals and their designees at the White House in early September.

I commend you on your willingness to take a leadership role in this important effort and look forward to hearing about your progress and plans following the meeting next month. Please know that I deeply appreciate your commitment.

Sincerely,

Bill Clinton

Dear:

Thank you for participating in the White House meeting of the Apparel Industry Partnership. Your dedication and leadership have helped establish a strong foundation for what I know will be a successful effort to develop industry options for assuring consumers that the products they buy are not made under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

There is much work to be done over the next several months. Secretary of Labor Reich and I are committed to helping you in any way we can. To give the process a jump start, Secretary Reich will host the initial meeting of principals and their designees at the White House in early September.

I commend you on your willingness to take a leadership role in this important effort and look forward to hearing about your progress and plans following the meeting next month. Please know that I deeply appreciate your commitment.

Sincerely

POTUS
