Dear Mr. Carey:

Thank you for inviting President Clinton to attend the dinner for Speaker Tom Foley hosted by the Board of Flax Trust/America. The President appreciates your offer and is sorry that he was unable to join you.

Unfortunately, the tremendous demands on the President as he works to move our country forward do not give him the opportunity to accept as many kind invitations as he would like.

On behalf of the President, thank you again for your invitation. Please do not hesitate to contact my office if we can provide you with any further assistance.

Sincerely,

Roy M. Neel
Deputy Chief of Staff

Dear Mr. President:

I have the great honor of serving on the Board of Flax Trust/America, an organization committed to peace and economic development in Northern Ireland, "one person at a time, one job at a time."

On Tuesday, September 14, at the Hyatt Regency on Capitol Hill, friends and supporters of the Trust will gather to honor one of our own, Speaker Tom Foley, at our annual Washington dinner. Speaker Foley has not only been a great friend of the Trust but has witnessed first-hand its programs at work in Belfast.

Your attendance at this event, Mr. President, would do honor to Speaker Foley and to the cause of justice and peace in Northern Ireland. Your remarks on this occasion, however brief, would mean a great deal to all of us and would leave a lasting impression on your listeners, many of whom are known to you.

Please let me know that you will join us in this well-deserved tribute to Speaker Foley.

With admiration and respect.

Sincerely,

Hugh L. Carey
