THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 6, 2000

Dear Stella:

Thank you so much for your letter on recent developments in Northern Ireland.

As you know, the peace process has faced many difficult moments, but thanks to the efforts of the British and Irish governments and the political parties themselves, we continue to see significant overall progress toward full implementation of the Good Friday Accord. Irish-American groups such as yours also deserve great credit for your steadfast support of those who seek democratic power-sharing through exclusively peaceful means.

Again, thank you for your letter and your support.

Sincerely,

Bill Clinton
