To The President
Mr. Bill Clinton
A chara,

Not since President Wilson at Versailles has your office been in such a position to influence for the better the problem of North E. Ireland. Thankfully you have grasped the opportunity. I attended your rally in College Green, Dublin and felt that at long last we can hope for peace and justice on this island.

Now, as before, your influence is much in need. I urge you to persevere to the final settlement.

Le meas,
Michael O' Donnell
