Dear Bill:

Amid the unprecedented distraction heaped upon our country and its leadership over the past few months, I just wanted to extend my deepest gratitude and most sincere congratulations on your historic achievements within the Middle East and Northern Ireland peace efforts. It is by these great deeds that you will put your mark on history. Obviously, there is a long list of other accomplishments, but in my opinion, history will surely record these events with special emphasis.

Warmest regards,

Mike Medavoy

P.S. I have missed you on your last few trips, but most of my friends tell me you are in terrific shape.
