Dear Patrick:

It was good to see you in Chicago, and I thank you for your kind words about the Northern Ireland peace accord.

Senator Mitchell and Prime Ministers Ahern and Blair have been wonderful leaders in this effort, and they all deserve our gratitude. Although the path to peace is rarely easy, I believe that this agreement has the potential to bring real calm and mutual respect to a beautiful but very troubled part of our world. I was glad to help in whatever ways I could, and I will continue to be available.

Honorable William J. Clinton
President of the United States
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear President Clinton:

I had the great pleasure of meeting with you on your recent visit to Chicago at the Carter School. It was only days after that you played such a pivotal role in bringing about the peace accord in Ireland. Being a first generation Irish American and from a city like Chicago whose population includes a large number of Irish, I wanted to take this opportunity to thank you for your efforts in resolving the conflict in Northern Ireland. None of your predecessors in office took as keen an interest in finding a permanent peace resolution, and your effort is much appreciated.

It is my intent to publicly thank you by way of a council resolution at our next City Council meeting, a copy of which I will forward to you upon its presentation.

Very truly yours,

Patrick J. O'Connor
Alderman - 40th Ward
Chairman - Committee on Education
