The Honorable William Jefferson Clinton
President of the United States
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. President:

I am writing in regard to the letter I sent you on July 29, 1993, which was co-signed by 63 of my colleagues in the House and one Senator.

As I indicated then, I believe the United States should use our position as the last Superpower to help to end the terrible human suffering and sectarian violence which plague Northern Ireland. I am hopeful that you share my concern and will honor the request for a meeting on Northern Ireland contained in that letter. To date, I have received many inquiries from my colleagues concerning your response, and unfortunately, have been forced to tell them I have heard nothing from you.

I can appreciate how busy your schedule is, given the important policy initiatives your Administration has undertaken. Nevertheless, this matter is of great concern to me and I hope to hear from you soon.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely,

Thomas J. Manton
Member of Congress
