

FOIA MARKER

This is not a textual record. This is used as an administrative marker by the William J. Clinton Presidential Library Staff.

Collection/Record Group: Clinton Presidential Records
Subgroup/Office of Origin: Records Management - SUBJECT FILE
Series/Staff Member: Subject Files
Subseries:

OA/ID Number: 17725
Scan ID: 221977
Document Number:

Folder Title:
ME001

Stack:	Row:	Section:	Shelf:	Position:
S	85	5	1	3

WE

22.1997
ME001

June 4, 1997

Mr. David Schilling
Director
Global Corporate Accountability
Programs
ICCR
Room 550
475 Riverside Drive
New York, New York 10115

Dear David:

I want to congratulate you and the other members of the Apparel Industry Partnership for your success in developing an agreement that sets the groundwork for ensuring that the garments sold to American consumers are not produced under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

Your accomplishment is historic, and I congratulate you on your commitment to this important work. Only when our corporate leaders are all willing to do the right thing, even if it means putting the bottom line at risk, will we rid the global economy of the shame of sweatshops.

Thank you for your hard work, and I look forward to hearing of your continuing progress.

Sincerely,

BILL CLINTON A

OK for batch
(Rpm)

BC/RLM/JAD/ws-emu-ws-ws (5PGRP)
(sweatsh.pf)

All returned to Rosten Musgrave
6-4-97

Paper Copy Generated by
LPWJC

June 4, 1997

Ms. Linda Clarizio, Esq.
Arnold and Porter
555 12th Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20004-1202

Dear Linda:

I want to congratulate you and the other members of the Apparel Industry Partnership for your success in developing an agreement that sets the groundwork for ensuring that the garments sold to American consumers are not produced under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

Your accomplishment is historic, and I congratulate you on your commitment to this important work. Only when our corporate leaders are all willing to do the right thing, even if it means putting the bottom line at risk, will we rid the global economy of the shame of sweatshops.

Thank you for your hard work, and I look forward to hearing of your continuing progress.

Sincerely,

BILL CLINTON

BC/RLM/JAD/ws-emu-ws-ws (5PGRP)
(sweatsh.pf)

Paper Copy Generated by
LPWJC

June 4, 1997

Mr. Stanley Levy
Greenberg Glusker Fields Claman
and Machtinger LLP
1900 Avenue of the Stars
Los Angeles, California 90067

Dear Stanley:

I want to congratulate you and the other members of the Apparel Industry Partnership for your success in developing an agreement that sets the groundwork for ensuring that the garments sold to American consumers are not produced under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

Your accomplishment is historic, and I congratulate you on your commitment to this important work. Only when our corporate leaders are all willing to do the right thing, even if it means putting the bottom line at risk, will we rid the global economy of the shame of sweatshops.

Thank you for your hard work, and I look forward to hearing of your continuing progress.

Sincerely,

BILL CLINTON

BC/RLM/JAD/ws-emu-ws-ws (5PGRP)
(sweatsh.pf)

Paper Copy Generated by
LPWJC

June 4, 1997

Ms. Jane Randel
Liz Claiborne, Inc.
One Claiborne Avenue
North Bergen, New Jersey 07047

Dear Jane:

I want to congratulate you and the other members of the Apparel Industry Partnership for your success in developing an agreement that sets the groundwork for ensuring that the garments sold to American consumers are not produced under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

Your accomplishment is historic, and I congratulate you on your commitment to this important work. Only when our corporate leaders are all willing to do the right thing, even if it means putting the bottom line at risk, will we rid the global economy of the shame of sweatshops.

Thank you for your hard work, and I look forward to hearing of your continuing progress.

Sincerely,

BILL CLINTON

BC/RLM/JAD/ws-emu-ws-ws (5PGRP)
(sweatsh.pf)

Paper Copy Generated by
LPWJC

June 4, 1997

Mr. Jack Robinson
Director, Production Management
LL Bean Inc.
Casco Street
Freeport, Maine 04033

Dear Jack:

I want to congratulate you and the other members of the Apparel Industry Partnership for your success in developing an agreement that sets the groundwork for ensuring that the garments sold to American consumers are not produced under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

Your accomplishment is historic, and I congratulate you on your commitment to this important work. Only when our corporate leaders are all willing to do the right thing, even if it means putting the bottom line at risk, will we rid the global economy of the shame of sweatshops.

Thank you for your hard work, and I look forward to hearing of your continuing progress.

Sincerely,

BILL CLINTON

BC/RLM/JAD/ws-emu-ws-ws (5PGRP)
(sweatsh.pf)

Paper Copy Generated by
LPWJC

June 4, 1997

Mr. Brad Figel
Director of Governmental Affairs
Nike, Inc.
507 Second Street, N.E.
Washington, D.C. 20002

Dear Brad:

I want to congratulate you and the other members of the Apparel Industry Partnership for your success in developing an agreement that sets the groundwork for ensuring that the garments sold to American consumers are not produced under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

Your accomplishment is historic, and I congratulate you on your commitment to this important work. Only when our corporate leaders are all willing to do the right thing, even if it means putting the bottom line at risk, will we rid the global economy of the shame of sweatshops.

Thank you for your hard work, and I look forward to hearing of your continuing progress.

Sincerely,

BILL CLINTON

BC/RLM/JAD/ws-emu-ws-ws (5PGRP)
(sweatsh.pf)

Paper Copy Generated by
LPWJC

June 4, 1997

Mr. Roger McDivitt
Production Manager
Patagonia
259 West Santa Clara Street
Ventura, California 93001

Dear Roger:

I want to congratulate you and the other members of the Apparel Industry Partnership for your success in developing an agreement that sets the groundwork for ensuring that the garments sold to American consumers are not produced under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

Your accomplishment is historic, and I congratulate you on your commitment to this important work. Only when our corporate leaders are all willing to do the right thing, even if it means putting the bottom line at risk, will we rid the global economy of the shame of sweatshops.

Thank you for your hard work, and I look forward to hearing of your continuing progress.

Sincerely,

BILL CLINTON

BC/RLM/JAD/ws-emu-ws-ws (5PGRP)
(sweatsh.pf)

Paper Copy Generated by
LPWJC

June 4, 1997

Mr. Arthur Heffner
Executive Vice President
Phillips-Van Heusen Corporation
1290 Avenue of the Americas
New York, New York 10104

Dear Arthur:

I want to congratulate you and the other members of the Apparel Industry Partnership for your success in developing an agreement that sets the groundwork for ensuring that the garments sold to American consumers are not produced under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

Your accomplishment is historic, and I congratulate you on your commitment to this important work. Only when our corporate leaders are all willing to do the right thing, even if it means putting the bottom line at risk, will we rid the global economy of the shame of sweatshops.

Thank you for your hard work, and I look forward to hearing of your continuing progress.

Sincerely,

BILL CLINTON

BC/RLM/JAD/ws-emu-ws-ws (5PGRP)
(sweatsh.pf)

Paper Copy Generated by
LPWJC

June 4, 1997

Ms. Kathie Lee Gifford
c/o Richard Hofstetter, Esq.
Frankfurt, Garbus, Klein & Selz, PC
9th Floor
488 Madison Avenue
New York, New York 10022

Dear Kathie Lee:

I want to congratulate you and the other members of the Apparel Industry Partnership for your success in developing an agreement that sets the groundwork for ensuring that the garments sold to American consumers are not produced under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

Your accomplishment is historic, and I congratulate you on your commitment to this important work. Only when our corporate leaders are all willing to do the right thing, even if it means putting the bottom line at risk, will we rid the global economy of the shame of sweatshops.

Thank you for your hard work, and I look forward to hearing of your continuing progress.

Sincerely,

BILL CLINTON

BC/RLM/JAD/ws-emu-ws-ws (5PGRP)
(sweatsh.pf)

Paper Copy Generated by
LPWJC

June 4, 1997

Reverend Pharis Harvey
Executive Director
International Labor Rights Fund
110 Maryland Avenue, N.E.
Washington, D.C. 20002

Dear Reverend Harvey:

I want to congratulate you and the other members of the Apparel Industry Partnership for your success in developing an agreement that sets the groundwork for ensuring that the garments sold to American consumers are not produced under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

Your accomplishment is historic, and I congratulate you on your commitment to this important work. Only when our corporate leaders are all willing to do the right thing, even if it means putting the bottom line at risk, will we rid the global economy of the shame of sweatshops.

Thank you for your hard work, and I look forward to hearing of your continuing progress.

Sincerely,

BILL CLINTON

BC/RLM/JAD/ws-emu-ws-ws (5PGRP)
(sweatsh.pf)

Paper Copy Generated by
LPWJC

June 4, 1997

Mr. Michael Posner
Executive Director
Lawyers Committee for Human Rights
10th Floor
330 Seventh Avenue
New York, New York 20004

Dear Michael:

I want to congratulate you and the other members of the Apparel Industry Partnership for your success in developing an agreement that sets the groundwork for ensuring that the garments sold to American consumers are not produced under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

Your accomplishment is historic, and I congratulate you on your commitment to this important work. Only when our corporate leaders are all willing to do the right thing, even if it means putting the bottom line at risk, will we rid the global economy of the shame of sweatshops.

Thank you for your hard work, and I look forward to hearing of your continuing progress.

Sincerely,

BILL CLINTON

BC/RLM/JAD/ws-emu-ws-ws (5PGRP)
(sweatsh.pf)

Paper Copy Generated by
LPWJC

June 4, 1997

Mr. Paul Charron
President, Chairman & CEO
Liz Claiborne, Inc.
One Claiborne Avenue
North Bergen, New Jersey 07047

Dear Paul:

I want to congratulate you and the other members of the Apparel Industry Partnership for your success in developing an agreement that sets the groundwork for ensuring that the garments sold to American consumers are not produced under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

Your accomplishment is historic, and I congratulate you on your commitment to this important work. Only when our corporate leaders are all willing to do the right thing, even if it means putting the bottom line at risk, will we rid the global economy of the shame of sweatshops.

Thank you for your hard work, and I look forward to hearing of your continuing progress.

Sincerely,

BILL CLINTON

BC/RLM/JAD/ws-emu-ws-ws (5PGRP)
(sweatsh.pf)

Paper Copy Generated by
LPWJC

June 4, 1997

Ms. Roberta Karp
General Counsel
Liz Claiborne, Inc.
One Claiborne Avenue
North Bergen, New Jersey 07047

Dear Roberta:

I want to congratulate you and the other members of the Apparel Industry Partnership for your success in developing an agreement that sets the groundwork for ensuring that the garments sold to American consumers are not produced under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

Your accomplishment is historic, and I congratulate you on your commitment to this important work. Only when our corporate leaders are all willing to do the right thing, even if it means putting the bottom line at risk, will we rid the global economy of the shame of sweatshops.

Thank you for your hard work, and I look forward to hearing of your continuing progress.

Sincerely,

BILL CLINTON

BC/RLM/JAD/ws-emu-ws-ws (5PGRP)
(sweatsh.pf)

Paper Copy Generated by
LPWJC

June 4, 1997

Mr. Tom Harden
Senior Vice President
Manufacturing Information and Merchandizing
LL Bean Inc.
Casco Street
Freeport, Maine 04033

Dear Tom:

I want to congratulate you and the other members of the Apparel Industry Partnership for your success in developing an agreement that sets the groundwork for ensuring that the garments sold to American consumers are not produced under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

Your accomplishment is historic, and I congratulate you on your commitment to this important work. Only when our corporate leaders are all willing to do the right thing, even if it means putting the bottom line at risk, will we rid the global economy of the shame of sweatshops.

Thank you for your hard work, and I look forward to hearing of your continuing progress.

Sincerely,

BILL CLINTON

BC/RLM/JAD/ws-emu-ws-ws (5PGRP)
(sweatsh.pf)

paper Copy Generated by
LPWJC

June 4, 1997

Ms. Linda Golodner
President
National Consumers League
1701 K Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20005

Dear Linda:

I want to congratulate you and the other members of the Apparel Industry Partnership for your success in developing an agreement that sets the groundwork for ensuring that the garments sold to American consumers are not produced under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

Your accomplishment is historic, and I congratulate you on your commitment to this important work. Only when our corporate leaders are all willing to do the right thing, even if it means putting the bottom line at risk, will we rid the global economy of the shame of sweatshops.

Thank you for your hard work, and I look forward to hearing of your continuing progress.

Sincerely,

BILL CLINTON

BC/RLM/JAD/ws-emu-ws-ws (5PGRP)
(sweatsh.pf)

Paper Copy Generated by
LPWJC

June 4, 1997

Mr. Phillip Knight
Chairman of the Board and CEO
NIKE, Inc.
One Bowerman Drive
Beaverton, Oregon 97005

Dear Phil:

I want to congratulate you and the other members of the Apparel Industry Partnership for your success in developing an agreement that sets the groundwork for ensuring that the garments sold to American consumers are not produced under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

Your accomplishment is historic, and I congratulate you on your commitment to this important work. Only when our corporate leaders are all willing to do the right thing, even if it means putting the bottom line at risk, will we rid the global economy of the shame of sweatshops.

Thank you for your hard work, and I look forward to hearing of your continuing progress.

Sincerely,

BILL CLINTON

BC/RLM/JAD/ws-emu-ws-ws (5PGRP)
(sweatsh.pf)

paper Copy Generated by
LPWJC

June 4, 1997

Mr. David Bruce Olsen
CEO
Patagonia
259 West Santa Clara Street
Ventura, California 93001

Dear David:

I want to congratulate you and the other members of the Apparel Industry Partnership for your success in developing an agreement that sets the groundwork for ensuring that the garments sold to American consumers are not produced under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

Your accomplishment is historic, and I congratulate you on your commitment to this important work. Only when our corporate leaders are all willing to do the right thing, even if it means putting the bottom line at risk, will we rid the global economy of the shame of sweatshops.

Thank you for your hard work, and I look forward to hearing of your continuing progress.

Sincerely,

BILL CLINTON

BC/RLM/JAD/ws-emu-ws-ws (5PGRP)
(sweatsh.pf)

Paper Copy Generated by
LPWJC

June 4, 1997

Mr. Bruce Klatsky
Chairman, President and CEO
Phillips-Van Heusen Corporation
1290 Avenue of the Americas
New York, New York 10104

Dear Bruce:

I want to congratulate you and the other members of the Apparel Industry Partnership for your success in developing an agreement that sets the groundwork for ensuring that the garments sold to American consumers are not produced under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

Your accomplishment is historic, and I congratulate you on your commitment to this important work. Only when our corporate leaders are all willing to do the right thing, even if it means putting the bottom line at risk, will we rid the global economy of the shame of sweatshops.

Thank you for your hard work, and I look forward to hearing of your continuing progress.

Sincerely,

BILL CLINTON

BC/RLM/JAD/ws-emu-ws-ws (5PGRP)
(sweatsh.pf)

Paper Copy Generated by
LPWJC

June 4, 1997

Mr. Paul Fireman
Chairman and CEO
Reebok International
100 Technology Center Drive
Stoughton, Massachusetts 02072

Dear Paul:

I want to congratulate you and the other members of the Apparel Industry Partnership for your success in developing an agreement that sets the groundwork for ensuring that the garments sold to American consumers are not produced under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

Your accomplishment is historic, and I congratulate you on your commitment to this important work. Only when our corporate leaders are all willing to do the right thing, even if it means putting the bottom line at risk, will we rid the global economy of the shame of sweatshops.

Thank you for your hard work, and I look forward to hearing of your continuing progress.

Sincerely,

BILL CLINTON

BC/RLM/JAD/ws-emu-ws-ws (5PGRP)
(sweatsh.pf)

Paper Copy Generated by
LPWJC

June 4, 1997

Ms. Lenore Miller
President
Retail, Wholesale and Department Store Union
30 East 29th Street
New York, New York 10016

Dear Lenore:

I want to congratulate you and the other members of the Apparel Industry Partnership for your success in developing an agreement that sets the groundwork for ensuring that the garments sold to American consumers are not produced under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

Your accomplishment is historic, and I congratulate you on your commitment to this important work. Only when our corporate leaders are all willing to do the right thing, even if it means putting the bottom line at risk, will we rid the global economy of the shame of sweatshops.

Thank you for your hard work, and I look forward to hearing of your continuing progress.

Sincerely,

BILL CLINTON

BC/RLM/JAD/ws-emu-ws-ws (5PGRP)
(sweatsh.pf)

Paper Copy Generated by
LPWJC

June 4, 1997

Ms. Sandra Cuneo
Executive Director
RFK Memorial Center for Human Rights
1206 30th Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20007

Dear Sandra:

I want to congratulate you and the other members of the Apparel Industry Partnership for your success in developing an agreement that sets the groundwork for ensuring that the garments sold to American consumers are not produced under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

Your accomplishment is historic, and I congratulate you on your commitment to this important work. Only when our corporate leaders are all willing to do the right thing, even if it means putting the bottom line at risk, will we rid the global economy of the shame of sweatshops.

Thank you for your hard work, and I look forward to hearing of your continuing progress.

Sincerely,

BILL CLINTON

BC/RLM/JAD/ws-emu-ws-ws (5PGRP)
(sweatsh.pf)

Paper Copy Generated by
LPWJC

June 4, 1997

Mr. Martin Brill
President
Tweeds
1500 Harbor Boulevard
Weehawken, New Jersey 07087

Dear Martin:

I want to congratulate you and the other members of the Apparel Industry Partnership for your success in developing an agreement that sets the groundwork for ensuring that the garments sold to American consumers are not produced under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

Your accomplishment is historic, and I congratulate you on your commitment to this important work. Only when our corporate leaders are all willing to do the right thing, even if it means putting the bottom line at risk, will we rid the global economy of the shame of sweatshops.

Thank you for your hard work, and I look forward to hearing of your continuing progress.

Sincerely,

BILL CLINTON

BC/RLM/JAD/ws-emu-ws-ws (5PGRP)
(sweatsh.pf)

Paper Copy Generated by
LPWJC

June 4, 1997

Mr. Jay Mazur
President
UNITE
1710 Broadway
New York, New York 10019-5299

Dear Jay:

I want to congratulate you and the other members of the Apparel Industry Partnership for your success in developing an agreement that sets the groundwork for ensuring that the garments sold to American consumers are not produced under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

Your accomplishment is historic, and I congratulate you on your commitment to this important work. Only when our corporate leaders are all willing to do the right thing, even if it means putting the bottom line at risk, will we rid the global economy of the shame of sweatshops.

Thank you for your hard work, and I look forward to hearing of your continuing progress.

Sincerely,

BILL CLINTON

BC/RLM/JAD/ws-emu-ws-ws (5PGRP)
(sweatsh.pf)

Paper Copy Generated by
LPWJC

June 4, 1997

Mr. Aron Cramer
Director, Human Rights Program
Business for Social Responsibility
1683 Folsom Street
San Francisco, California 94103-3722

Dear Aron:

I want to congratulate you and the other members of the Apparel Industry Partnership for your success in developing an agreement that sets the groundwork for ensuring that the garments sold to American consumers are not produced under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

Your accomplishment is historic, and I congratulate you on your commitment to this important work. Only when our corporate leaders are all willing to do the right thing, even if it means putting the bottom line at risk, will we rid the global economy of the shame of sweatshops.

Thank you for your hard work, and I look forward to hearing of your continuing progress.

Sincerely,

BILL CLINTON

BC/RLM/JAD/ws-emu-ws-ws (5PGRP)
(sweatsh.pf)

Paper Copy Generated by
LPWJC

June 4, 1997

Ms. Sharon Cohen
Vice President
Reebok International
100 Technology Center Drive
Stoughton, Massachusetts 02072

Dear Sharon:

I want to congratulate you and the other members of the Apparel Industry Partnership for your success in developing an agreement that sets the groundwork for ensuring that the garments sold to American consumers are not produced under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

Your accomplishment is historic, and I congratulate you on your commitment to this important work. Only when our corporate leaders are all willing to do the right thing, even if it means putting the bottom line at risk, will we rid the global economy of the shame of sweatshops.

Thank you for your hard work, and I look forward to hearing of your continuing progress.

Sincerely,

BILL CLINTON

BC/RLM/JAD/ws-emu-ws-ws (5PGRP)
(sweatsh.pf)

Paper Copy Generated by
LPWJC

June 4, 1997

Mr. Doug Cahn
Senior Director, Human Rights Program
Reebok International
100 Technology Center Drive
Stoughton, Massachusetts 02072

Dear Doug:

I want to congratulate you and the other members of the Apparel Industry Partnership for your success in developing an agreement that sets the groundwork for ensuring that the garments sold to American consumers are not produced under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

Your accomplishment is historic, and I congratulate you on your commitment to this important work. Only when our corporate leaders are all willing to do the right thing, even if it means putting the bottom line at risk, will we rid the global economy of the shame of sweatshops.

Thank you for your hard work, and I look forward to hearing of your continuing progress.

Sincerely,

BILL CLINTON

BC/RLM/JAD/ws-emu-ws-ws (5PGRP)
(sweatsh.pf)

Paper Copy Generated by
LPWJC

June 4, 1997

Mr. Stuart Applebaum
Secretary Treasurer
Retail, Wholesale and Department Store Union
30 East 29th Street
New York, New York 10016

Dear Stuart:

I want to congratulate you and the other members of the Apparel Industry Partnership for your success in developing an agreement that sets the groundwork for ensuring that the garments sold to American consumers are not produced under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

Your accomplishment is historic, and I congratulate you on your commitment to this important work. Only when our corporate leaders are all willing to do the right thing, even if it means putting the bottom line at risk, will we rid the global economy of the shame of sweatshops.

Thank you for your hard work, and I look forward to hearing of your continuing progress.

Sincerely,

BILL CLINTON

BC/RLM/JAD/ws-emu-ws-ws (5PGRP)
(sweatsh.pf)

Paper Copy Generated by
LPWJC

June 4, 1997

Mr. James Silk
Director
RFK Memorial Center for Human Rights
1206 30th Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20007

Dear James:

I want to congratulate you and the other members of the Apparel Industry Partnership for your success in developing an agreement that sets the groundwork for ensuring that the garments sold to American consumers are not produced under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

Your accomplishment is historic, and I congratulate you on your commitment to this important work. Only when our corporate leaders are all willing to do the right thing, even if it means putting the bottom line at risk, will we rid the global economy of the shame of sweatshops.

Thank you for your hard work, and I look forward to hearing of your continuing progress.

Sincerely,

BILL CLINTON

BC/RLM/JAD/ws-emu-ws-ws (5PGRP)
(sweatsh.pf)

Copy Generated by
LPWJC

June 4, 1997

Ms. Katherine Hyde
Associate General Counsel
Tweeds
1500 Harbor Boulevard
Weehawken, New Jersey 07087

Dear Katherine:

I want to congratulate you and the other members of the Apparel Industry Partnership for your success in developing an agreement that sets the groundwork for ensuring that the garments sold to American consumers are not produced under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

Your accomplishment is historic, and I congratulate you on your commitment to this important work. Only when our corporate leaders are all willing to do the right thing, even if it means putting the bottom line at risk, will we rid the global economy of the shame of sweatshops.

Thank you for your hard work, and I look forward to hearing of your continuing progress.

Sincerely,

BILL CLINTON

BC/RLM/JAD/ws-emu-ws-ws (5PGRP)
(sweatsh.pf)

Paper Copy Generated by
LPWJC

June 4, 1997

Mr. Alan Howard
Assistant to the President
UNITE
1710 Broadway
New York, New York 10019-5299

Dear Alan:

I want to congratulate you and the other members of the Apparel Industry Partnership for your success in developing an agreement that sets the groundwork for ensuring that the garments sold to American consumers are not produced under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

Your accomplishment is historic, and I congratulate you on your commitment to this important work. Only when our corporate leaders are all willing to do the right thing, even if it means putting the bottom line at risk, will we rid the global economy of the shame of sweatshops.

Thank you for your hard work, and I look forward to hearing of your continuing progress.

Sincerely,

BILL CLINTON

BC/RLM/JAD/ws-emu-ws-ws (5PGRP)
(sweatsh.pf)

Paper Copy Generated by
LPWJC

June 4, 1997

Ms. Ann Hoffman
Assistant Legislative Director
UNITE
815 16th Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20006

Dear Ann:

I want to congratulate you and the other members of the Apparel Industry Partnership for your success in developing an agreement that sets the groundwork for ensuring that the garments sold to American consumers are not produced under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

Your accomplishment is historic, and I congratulate you on your commitment to this important work. Only when our corporate leaders are all willing to do the right thing, even if it means putting the bottom line at risk, will we rid the global economy of the shame of sweatshops.

Thank you for your hard work, and I look forward to hearing of your continuing progress.

Sincerely,

BILL CLINTON

BC/RLM/JAD/ws-emu-ws-ws (5PGRP)
(sweatsh.pf)

Paper Copy Generated by
LPWJC

June 4, 1997

Mr. Jon Rosenblum
Suite 1
146 South Hancock
Madison, Wisconsin 53703

Dear Jon:

I want to congratulate you and the other members of the Apparel Industry Partnership for your success in developing an agreement that sets the groundwork for ensuring that the garments sold to American consumers are not produced under adverse labor conditions here or abroad.

Your accomplishment is historic, and I congratulate you on your commitment to this important work. Only when our corporate leaders are all willing to do the right thing, even if it means putting the bottom line at risk, will we rid the global economy of the shame of sweatshops.

Thank you for your hard work, and I look forward to hearing of your continuing progress.

Sincerely,

BILL CLINTON

BC/RLM/JAD/ws-emu-ws-ws (5PGRP)
(sweatsh.pf)

Copy Generated by
LPWJC

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON
ORM OPTICAL DISK NETWORK

ID# 22/977

Hardcopy pages are in poor condition (too light or too dark).

Remainder of case not scanned.

Oversize attachment not scanned.

Report not scanned.

Enclosure(s) not scanned.

Proclamation not scanned.

Incoming letter(s) not scanned.

Proposal not scanned.

Statement not scanned.

Duplicate letters attached - not scanned.

Only table of contents scanned.

No incoming letter attached.

Only tracking sheet scanned.

Photo(s) not scanned.

Bill not scanned.

Resolution not scanned.

Comments:

Copy Generated by
LPWJC