The Honorable William Jefferson Clinton
President
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20100

Dear Mr. President:

As a Co-Chairman of the Congressional Ad Hoc Committee for Irish Affairs, I am deeply encouraged by your Administration's record of support for the peace process in Northern Ireland. I encourage you to continue these efforts.

In that regard, I am writing to ask you to meet with Gerry Adams, leader of the Sinn Fein political party during Mr. Adams' upcoming visit to the United States. As you know, this trip will mark the first time Mr. Adams has been permitted a visa that allows him to travel to Washington.

Mr. Adams has played an important role in encouraging peace in Northern Ireland through his work with John Hume in drafting the Hume-Adams peace plan and bringing about the IRA ceasefire. As the spokesman for the Republican movement, Mr. Adams can present a unique perspective on the situation in Northern Ireland. I am helping to schedule Mr. Adams' appointments and would be happy to facilitate a meeting with Mr. Adams for you. If I can be of further assistance, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Thomas J. Manton
Member of Congress
