Dear Maria:

I am delighted to send you the proceedings from our May 30th conference, "An Academic Search for Sweatshop Solutions." We were very honored to have had Secretary Herman as our keynote speaker for this event. It was her first public address after her Senate confirmation. The text of her speech appears on pages 6-9 of the proceedings.

The goal of the conference, co-sponsored by the Center for Ethical Concerns and the Fashion Design and Merchandising Program at Marymount, was to promote discussion and research on the issue of sweatshop labor. The conference brought together academicians, leaders from the retail industry, independent monitors, representatives from labor, and government officials to offer a broad spectrum of viewpoints and information.

As you know, this is an issue Marymount feels very strongly about and we plan to stay involved in the effort to find solutions to this challenging problem. We would welcome another opportunity to work with the Clinton Administration on this important issue.

Very best wishes and assured prayers.

Sincerely,

Sister Eymard
