ACTION

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: SAMUEL BERGER SB
SUBJECT: Letter to Northern Ireland Community Activist
Jackie Redpath

Purpose

To express appreciation for the article in Jackie Redpath's community newsletter on the anniversary of your visit to Northern Ireland.

Background

As you know, Jackie Redpath is a respected Protestant community activist in Northern Ireland. Kitty Higgins brought to your attention the article in Jackie's newsletter "Across the Pond" that describes the impact of your visit to Belfast last year on the peace process.

RECOMMENDATION

That you sign the letter to Jackie Redpath at Tab A.

Dear Jackie:

I enjoyed reading in the Partnership's newsletter reflections from the Shankill a year after my 1995 visit to Belfast. I will never forget the energy and the commitment to peace I saw on the Shankill that day in November. I appreciate the determination and optimism with which you and your colleagues continue to work for lasting peace and economic opportunity in your communities.

Sincerely,

Bill Clinton<sup>A</sup>
