Diana: State says that the Embassy was told by the advance team that the WH had agreed to go along with a big 100 person lunch in San Jose instead of the leader's only session that we had recommended. They have so informed the GOCR. Under these circumstances, I recommend that we accept the big lunch as a fait accompli and focus our energies on substantive objectives, like the sweatshop initiative.

On further thought, Mexico desk at State and this office propose we group the 32 deliverables under five headings:

- Managing the Border (migration, bridges, etc.)
- Tending the Environment (wastewater plants, EPA $, endangered species, pollution prevention)
- Helping Business (agriculture, trade)
- Helping Our People (education, health)
- Controlling Narcotics

State will prepare a summary fact sheet for each category and attach the more detailed fact sheets accordingly.

Va bene?

Mexico, I think, is a special case because of all the BNC deliverables. Jim asked for a fact sheet on each deliverable. I haven't done a count but we will cull through what is too in the weeds and let State use them if we don't. Does that sound right?

Subject: Fact-Sheets [UNCLASSIFIED]

Date: Wednesday, April 30, 1997 06:38 PM

I have tasked the following fact sheets through John Hamilton at State:

- Law Enforcement Cooperation (covers ILEA South announcement, Reno follow-up meeting, communique commitment to work on extradition and other law enforcement issues of concern).
- Sustainable Development (draft I have covers Joint Implementation and other communique achievements -- needs amendment to cover U.S.NPS/GOOCR cooperation).
- Democracy and Human Rights (covers regional human rights issues, FLOTUS visit to Inter-American institute, new missions for region's armed forces, U.S. offer of support with peacekeeping and upcoming peacekeeping exercise).
- Trade and Investment (covers CBI enhancement, regional TIC, free trade discussions). Cleared by State with USTR.
- Regionalism (covers Central America regional cooperation, CACM revival, San Jose as a building block to Santiago, part of a broader policy of support for regional and sub-regional cooperation).
- I have tasked directly to DOT a more technical fact sheet on Open Skies.
- Hamilton and Rob Malley agreed that Rob would draft a fact sheet on immigration and the cap.
- State is also working on an apparel industry partnership fact sheet, which we may or may not use, depending on whether we get the Centrals' endorsement.

THAT MAKES EIGHT FACT SHEETS FOR SAN JOSE, SIX OF WHICH ARE STATE'S RESPONSIBILITY.
