THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

July 27, 1995

Dear Paul:

Thank you for your letter and your kind words about my Administration's role in furthering the peace process in Northern Ireland. I will continue to do everything I can to help bring about a just and lasting settlement to the conflict there.

For years, images of violence and hatred have shaped our impressions of Northern Ireland. It will give me great pleasure to experience the improved atmosphere you describe when I visit Northern Ireland later this year.

The schedule for my trip is not yet firm, but I will keep the proposal to visit Derry to participate in the establishment of the Tip O'Neill Peace Chair very much in mind.

Again, thank you for staying in touch on this important issue.

Sincerely,

Bill Clinton

Paul S. Quinn, Esq.
