WASHINGTON

Dear Ms. McShane:

I want to express my admiration and encouragement for the goodwill that Co-operation Ireland engenders by bringing together the people of Ireland, both North and South.

Your efforts show how constructive the people of the island of Ireland can be when they put their minds together to break through the barriers of historical mistrust and prejudice. The spirit of Co-operation Ireland serves as an inspiration to those in Ireland, the United Kingdom and especially in Northern Ireland seeking reconciliation among the two traditions. Your organization will help strengthen the foundation of a long-lasting peace by exposing young people to the fruits of cooperation and mutual understanding.

I send you my best wishes for your continued success.

Sincerely,

A
