MR. PRESIDENT:

As you may recall, I prepared a condolence letter to Michael Jordan for your signature after Michael's father was murdered.

The attached letter to you and the First Lady was sent to my attention (my family is a part owner of the team) and I thought you'd both be interested in seeing it.

Dear President & Mrs. Clinton:

Thank you for your prayers and kind words regarding the passing of my father.

Your expression of concern, in addition to meaning a lot to my family and me, will without a doubt give "Pops" bragging rights in the place we refer to as the here-after.

Again, please know that the Jordan Family is most appreciative of your well wishes.

Sincerely,

Mr. Michael Jordan

Dear Michael:

I wanted to tell you how sorry Hillary and I are about the tragic death of your father and to convey to you, your mother Deloris, and your whole family our deepest sympathy.

Although I never had the privilege of meeting him, I understand that your father was a fine and decent man, whose good-natured kindness to those around him and whose love for and devotion to his family were evident for all to see.

I know that losing him in this cruel way must be a terribly difficult blow for you and your family. But I hope that, in the days and months and years ahead, you can take comfort in remembering the richness of the life he led and the joy and love he brought to you all. Hillary and I wish you well and want you and your family to know that all of you are in our prayers.

Sincerely,

Bill Clinton
